Primary Method of Evaluation:	3) Skills demonstration
Typical Assignment Using Primary Method of Evaluation:	Perform "The Horseman" by Dmitri Kabalevsky, with accurate notes, rhythms, fingerings, articulation, phrasing, tempo, and dynamics.
Critical Thinking Assignment 1:	Analyze "Viennese Sonatina No.1," 1st Movement by W. A. Mozart by labeling the major formal sections in your score. Perform the piece, using the correct dynamics, articulation, voicing and balance between the hands required for the projection of Mozart's musical ideas.
Critical Thinking Assignment 2:	Analyze "Invention No.1 in C Major" by J.S. Bach by labeling all subject entries, inversions of the subject, and sequences in your score before performing it for your instructor.
Other Evaluation Methods:	Class Performance, Other (specify), Performance Exams
If Other:	Two concert reports based on selected Center for the Arts performances
Instructional Methods:	Demonstration, Discussion, Group Activities, Guest Speakers, Lab, Lecture, Multimedia presentations
If other:

Work Outside of Class:	Observation of or participation in an activity related to course content (such as theatre event, museum, concert, debate, meeting), Problem solving activity, Skill practice, Study, Written work (such as essay/composition/report/analysis/research)

Requisite Skill and Matching skill(s): Bold the requisite skill(s). if applicable	It is expected that students entering this course will be able to play upper-intermediate level piano music with correct notes, rhythms, fingerings, dynamics and articulation, as well as 3-octave hands-together major and minor scales and arpeggios, I-IV-I-V or V6/5-I chord progressions. They are also expected to have an understanding of keyboard skills including good hand position, tone production, pedaling and balance between the hands. Without these skills they will be highly unlikely to be able to play the repertoire, technical exercises and sight reading required from the very beginning of the class.
