Courses due for review next year

- CS 16, 23, 3, 7 (2 yr.)
- Math 190, 191 (6 yr.)

It was discussed if there could be a discussion prior to approving any courses. D. Eldanaf suggested that DCC members can input comments in Curriculog and can then have a discussion prior to approving courses, this process will begin next semester, Fall 2023. There will be due dates for the comments and feedback just before the DCC meetings.

Other items

- Relooking at AP Scores for ECC Credit – This was in reaction to the AP for the pre-calculus class coming up. G. Valle mentioned how this would affect placement tables and the ECC credits for certificates and degrees. Dr. Lemons and G. Valle will discuss further and will communicate it with faculty for feedback.

- Course renumbering- AB 1111 is asking to match the courses with the CID courses, and has already been matched with the CID and should be in curriculum. It was explained that all that is needed to do is go into curriculum and change the number to a new number.
- COMS 180 cross listing – The COMS Department lost the faculty that was teaching this course. Chris Wells reached out and asked if a math faculty can teach this course, Using Statistics for Persuasion. At the moment, there is a concern, if a math faculty should teach this course, and should this course be listed as both COMM and Math. There were no questions, comments or concerns from DCC members regarding COMS 180. G. Valle will take this as an implicit approval and will inform, Dr. Marlow Lemons.

Dean's remarks
G. Valle thanked everyone for their hard work and reminded everyone that ENGR 10 is a new course and was not in the Nuventive timeline, when ENGR 15 and Data sciences classed please make sure it is in Nuventive so we can have a timeline.
