

Part-Time Faculty – Radiologic Technology

ABOUT THE ROLE

The El Camino Community College District is now accepting applications for anticipated part-time faculty positions for the 2025 spring semester to teach Radiologic Technology courses. Candidates may be asked to instruct during weekdays, evenings and on Saturday.

ABOUT EL CAMINO COLLEGE

El Camino College (ECC) is located on the ancestral lands of the Gabrielino-Tongva people, the traditional caretakers of Tongva Angar (the Los Angeles basin, Southern Channel Islands) and occupies 126-acres near Torrance, California. We are located in Los Angeles County, just minutes from South Bay beaches. Our community serves a diverse student population including new and re-entering students and those pursuing certificates, degrees, and transfer goals.

As a comprehensive two-year college, El Camino College serves thousands of students each semester, the majority of whom are from diverse populations. The ideal candidate will share ECC’s commitment to educating its racially and socio-economically diverse student population including students with disabilities, veterans, working parents, and evening students. El Camino College provides many opportunities for students to succeed with hundreds of students transferring each year to four-year universities around the country. Top transfer institutions include UCLA, USC, and UC Davis. El Camino College is regularly among the top five community colleges in Southern California for students admitted to CSUs, and the top ten for UCs. Students are also supported by an extensive scholarship program, with approximately $600,000 awarded annually.

MISSION STATEMENT

El Camino College makes a positive difference in people’s lives. We provide innovative and excellent comprehensive educational programs and services that promote student learning, equity, and success in collaboration with our diverse communities.

With the passage of bond measures in 2002 and 2012, the district has undergone a substantial transformation campus-wide. Over the next 10 years, capital construction projects, as well as new initiatives to support student success, will strengthen El Camino College as a premier institution for teaching and learning.

PART-TIME FACULTY – RADIOLOGIC TECHNOLOGY

Division: Health Sciences & Athletics

Posting Closing Date: 1/10/2025

Req: A2425-017E

Position Type: Part-Time Temporary

REPRESENTATIVE DUTIES

El Camino College is seeking a part-time, temporary faculty member to join its Radiologic Technology Instructional team. Some assignments may include evening and weekend hours. This position assumes responsibility for instruction of appropriate classes in Radiologic Technology to help students qualify for State and National Certification. Evaluation of student clinical experience is required. Faculty serve as liaisons between the college and clinical affiliates and members of the radiologic technology profession; assist in arranging laboratory experiences; observe, evaluate, and record student performance both at the college and in the clinical setting; and maintain student clinical records. This position also assists with accreditation documentation, curriculum revision, and the ongoing quality control tasks for the Digital Radiography and PACS equipment in the imaging labs.

The position requires participation in a variety of campus and division activities such as department meetings, committee meetings, student activities, and office hours. Faculty are also expected to foster collaborations with employers, industry/trade groups, universities, and form partnerships with related instructional disciplines to support Guided Pathway initiatives and to improve student outcomes.

The ability to effectively teach Canvas online classes in order to offer online or hybrid courses is important. El Camino faculty must either complete our Online Learning & Teaching with Canvas (OLTC) course or provide sufficient evidence that they are prepared to develop and teach quality online courses through our waiver process.

Extensive knowledge in the field applicable to current industry standards is required as well as participation on advisory boards.

Applicants should demonstrate experience examining and remediating their instruction, interactions, and practices to engage and support diverse students more effectively. The position also requires development/review of curriculum and assessment of learning outcomes to improve teaching and learning in achieving El Camino College's mission of institutional effectiveness, quality educational programs, and vibrant student support services.

Faculty assignments may include morning, afternoon, evening, or weekend hours. Dual enrollment, distance education, on-line or hybrid with required distance education certification assignments are voluntary. For faculty who are interested in teaching online or hybrid courses, completion of El Camino College's distance education certification process is required or submission of a waiver with evidence of prior certification to develop and teach quality online courses.

Faculty may participate in initiatives set forth by the College that support students to achieve their educational goals through collaborations with employers, advisory committees, industry/trade groups, universities, high schools, or other partnerships with related instructional disciplines.
