

Title IX:
Where To Go
From Here

Presented by: Liz DeChellis and Lexi Weyrick
July 18, 2024

Overview of Today's Training

New Regulations Take Effect on August 1, 2024

- I. Overview of Major Changes
- II. Decisions Schools Face
- III. Current Injunctions Against Implementation
- IV. Communication with School Community
- V. Questions

Major Changes

- Expanded jurisdiction
- Updated definitions
- Required response
- Complaint
- Single-investigator model
- Hearing options

Decisions Schools Face

- Other definitions and conduct
- Hearing vs. No Hearing: Pros & Cons
- Single-Investigator Model vs. "Decision-Maker" Model: Pros & Cons
- Recording
- Handling conduct occurring before August 1, 2024

Current Injunctions Against Implementation

Where?	What does it mean?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Currently 15 states Certain colleges and universities across the US Potentially others 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Schools in these states should continue operating under the 2020 Rule Schools that might be named should be following the Kansas case All other schools should be ready to comply with the 2024 Rule on August 1

Communicating with Your Campus

- » Stay up-to-date with any new information from the courts, the DOE, etc.
- » Post new policy information in an easy and logical place on your websites
- » Consider creating one-pagers and FAQ's for community members to gain information easily

Questions?

Liz DeChellis; lad@vmlawcorp.com
Lexi Weyrick; lweyrick@vmlawcorp.com