- Health and Medicine Association Club: 40

Apprenticeships

- Pre-Apprenticeship Program Announcement: Spring 2025
- We are pleased to announce the return of pre-apprenticeships to our work-based learning programming in Spring 2025. This initiative will be in partnership with Northrop Grumman and will focus on the following high-demand occupations:
 - Machining
 - Electronics
 - Engineering Technology

Eligibility and Student Preferences:

- Northrop Grumman will prioritize students enrolled in academic programs aligned with these occupations. However, students outside these specific majors, such as those in the pre-engineering pathway, will also be considered. Many of these students bring relevant skills acquired through high school coursework, including participation in Project Lead the Way programs.

Faculty Recruitment:

- During the first quarter of 2025, we will collaborate with the division to recruit faculty to teach summer co-op courses supporting this program.

Key Recruitment Dates:

- Recruitment Cycle: January 6 – April 1, 2025
- Student Conferences: January 6 – April 1, 2025 (all applicants will attend one-on-one conferences)
- Interviews: April 14 – April 18, 2025

Outreach Methods:

- Recruitment efforts will include:
 - Virtual sessions
 - In-person presentations
 - Collaboration with Gate Keepers for referrals and student engagement
- We are excited about this opportunity to connect students with real-world industry experience and help them launch their careers. Further details will be shared as the program progresses.

Work-Based Learning

- Throughout the fall semester, data has been tracked on where work-based learning is occurring on campus. With the help of IR, courses have been identified where WBL was being offered according to the course description.
- Next steps:
 - To present on WBL during PD Power Up in January
 - To provide Information Sessions to instructional faculty for the new pilot WBL Professional Development course offered in spring 2025
 - To propose a Work Experience Education (WEE) course that is transferable to the CSU that allows students to gain essential skills through paid and unpaid work experience.

- Collaborate with Career Services and Apprenticeships with the development of the internship program and apprenticeship opportunities

MI CASA / Latinx Center

- Attended ECC Connect Early Alert Training to discuss and incorporate strategies for student referrals in the MICASA Center.
- Onboarded a Student Services Specialist that will perform a variety of specialized paraprofessional duties to provide services to students in the MICASA Center.
- Established a “MICASA Planning Committee” that consists of faculty members from the Spanish, Sociology, and Ethnic Studies Department.
- Hosted an event called, “Keep Calm & Drink Coffee” for the campus community, which was designed to create space for students to de-stress and recollect themselves before entering finals week. The event was also an opportunity for staff and faculty to share ideas for collaboration with the MICASA Center.
- Converged with the Transfer Center team to discuss and incorporate resources in the MICASA Center. Based on this gathering, the MICASA Center will host one “Transfer Workshop” each month for the Spring 2025 term. It was also decided that a representative from the Transfer Center will host “drop-in advising” every week on Thursdays to support students’ questions and/or concerns regarding the transfer process.
- Completed and submitted requests to purchase merchandise for the MICASA Center. The purchase of the MICASA merchandise is needed to develop marketing materials that raise awareness of the MICASA Center, promote its programs, and build a strong, visible presence within the campus community to engage students and faculty. These materials are essential for fostering a sense of belonging, increasing participation in cultural events, and ensuring the center’s resources are accessible to all students, particularly those from the Latina/o/x community.
- Drafted a Spring 2025 calendar of events for the MICASA Center that will consist of various programming ranging from counseling, transfer workshops, career-related services, and cultural workshops.

Social Justice Center:

SOCIAL JUSTICE CENTER “LEADERSHIP IN ACTION”

- Social Justice Center “Leadership in Action” seeks to:
 - bring together students who are passionate about social justice;
 - give them tools, activities and games to get them thinking collectively about some of society’s greatest challenges – Environmental Justice, Housing, Mental Health and Food Justice;
 - and to connect them directly with community leaders, organizers and activists in Skid Row at LA Community Action Network, to Homeboy Industries in Downtown LA, to the Root Down Community Garden in South LA and to Legacy LA in Boyle Heights.
- We had 51 students in the Fall 2024 cohort, 43 of them completed the entire training which culminated on Friday, November 8. We are proud of their efforts and evolution as leaders – and for their passion for making a difference in the world – and our campus.
- Our “Leadership in Action” facilitators were coordinators and specialists from across Student Equity & Achievement (SEA).
- We plan to provide this training every Fall semester.

ALTERNATIVE SPRING BREAK 2025

- Social Justice Center in partnership with Ethnic Studies, a MyPath course, taught by Dr. Taka Tanaka, is actively recruiting students for our Alternative Spring Break trip which will take place April 14-17, 2025.
- We will take students to San Diego, close to the US-Mexico border region for a four-day service and immersion experience working closely with Border Angeles, a non-profit community organization that “advocates for human rights, humane immigration reform, and social justice with a special focus on issues related to the US-Mexican border” (www.borderangels.org/about-us).
- Students will travel out and participate in an array of service projects, discussions, and workshops to immerse themselves with different social, environmental, and economic issues.
- Students will need to enroll in Ethnic Studies 1 (2484) which is an academic course during the Spring 2025 semester.
- Students can submit an interest form to be enrolled in the course here: <https://forms.gle/8XvwQP4D3Tnf2ocDA>

PLANNING FOR SPRING CULTURAL HERITAGE MONTHS

- Social Justice Center continues to take the lead in coordinating and collaborating with campus partners on campus-wide cultural heritage month celebrations.
- We are currently preparing for Black History Month (February), and Women’s History Month (March).
