Financial Aid

- Heavy outreach efforts for both FAFSA and CADA populations included comparing 2024-2025 records to previous years. ECC Contact Center connected with students who did not have a 2024-2025 financial aid application on file.
- A concerted effort is being made to contact mixed status students needing to complete the FAFSA application for federal aid. Many completed the CADA application for state aid consideration only (allowable as 2024-2025 exception).
- Cash for College assistance increased to every two weeks (normally two events per year).
- Verification file review will open soon, estimated in mid-June, with communication to students indicating that although documents will be collected and reviewed, schools cannot submit corrections to ED.
- Fall disbursements will be delayed for students selected for verification.
- Schools are uncertain about the reporting systems for payment until Fall 2024 begins.
- Many schools project a delay in the opening of the 2025-2026 financial aid application cycle.
- Current Statistics on our FAFSA filers (as of 6/7/2024):
  - Total FAFSA records 26,478
  - FAFSA records matched to ECC database: 13,078
  - Average Student Aid Index (SAI) (eligibility indicator):
    - Dependent $11,337
    - Independent $2,223
  - # Awarded Pell Grant for Fall 2024: 6,297
  - # Awarded CCPG (fee waiver) for Fall 2024: 10,145

Social Justice Center:

- Spring semester was busy for the Social Justice Center. We hosted over 150 events in our center, including all SJC events, Ethnic Studies Conference seminars, Cultural Heritage Month events, equity program partner events, and student club meetings.
- We celebrated the graduation of three of our Social Justice Center Student Workers, Ke'mar Edwards, Alyssa Lara and Nathalie Illescas who will be transferring to 4-year universities (CSU Dominguez Hills, UC Berkeley and CSU Fullerton, respectively).
- Ke'mar Edwards and Alyssa Lara served on College Council as our Social Justice Center Student representatives. We have two new representatives currently on board.
- We will start accepting applications for new student workers on 6/17. Check our website and IG for updates. Our Welcome and Welcome Back Student Staff Trainings will be held in August.
- The Social Justice Center, including the SJC food cupboard will be open this summer Mon-Thurs from 10am-3pm, and by appointment.
- We will start accepting interest forms for our Social Justice Student Leadership Institute soon. Check our website and IG for updates. Trainings will be held in the fall.
- We will be holding a Professional Development Power Up Session on how to get involved with planning campus cultural heritage celebrations. This is our third time offering this session and we hope to more students, staff and faculty continue to get involved. We currently have over 100 committee members in our Teams site from across disciplines, programs and departments. Keep your eye out for upcoming events, activities and celebrations for Hispanic Heritage Month and Native American Heritage Month. You are planning some of our own, please let us know so we can help promote it.
