Loss of Veteran Certification Due to Dismissal or Excessive Probation

A Veteran shall be subject to the loss of certification and the cessation of future funds from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs if the veteran's cumulative academic work falls into one of the following categories:

- a) The veteran has been academically dismissed.
- b) The veteran has had more than 50% of units attempted with a "W," "I," "NC," or "No Pass" for three consecutive semesters.
- c) The veteran has been on academic probation (below a 2.00 cumulative GPA) for three consecutive semesters.

Veterans who are in the (a) or (b) categories will be subject to dismissal as well as loss of certification. Veterans who are in the (c) category will lose certification and eligibility for the continuation of VA education benefits but will not be subject to dismissal (if the cumulative GPA remains below 2.00 in all graded credit units attempted but the student achieved a 2.00 or higher during the most recent semester (Fall, Spring, not Summer or Winter).

Appeal Process

Veterans wishing to appeal an academic or progress dismissal will be subject to the same appeal procedure as all other students.

Veterans wishing to appeal a loss of certification (loss of benefits) must file an appeal with the Veterans Services Office within 15 business days of notification of loss of certification. The appeal will be considered in a non-arbitrary manner for mitigating or extenuating circumstances. The burden to document the appeal is on the Veteran. The appeal will be adjudicated by a panel composed of 1) the School Certifying Official, 2) either the Assistant Director of Veterans Services or Dean of Support Services and 3) the Dean of Counseling or his/her designee.
